Yes... And I Approved This Message:

The 2016 Great Debate in EMS
"EMS DOCS PLAYING BOARD GAMES"
Is Subspecialty Certification in EMS Practice an Advance -- or a Step Backward -- for Us All ?
With Their Own Tested Experience in EMS Credentialing, the Two Legends Question Each Others Multiple Choices and Examine, Simple as A,B,C, What is True and False When Ac-Knowledging Who's Certifiably Crazy to Sit for the 300 Interrogatories. Is it None of the Above or All of the Above -- or Just the Least Likely Selected? In This Stimulus-Filled Challenge, the Great Debaters Will Each Apply Their Own Well-Examined Specialty Skills and Be Asked to Pass on Their Correct Responses with a Degree of Diploma-cy, But Only as Long as They Try to Score With Approved Qualifications and Demonstrate Some Results of Competency that En-Titles Them to Certify: "I'm good enough. I'm smart enough. And doggone it, people like me."
– Raymond L. ("Sugar Ray") Fowler, MD – the PRO (& ex-Con) vs.
– Terence D. ("Very Terry") Valenzuela, MD, MPH – the CON (& ex-Pro)
